

Robyn Conza

YOUmanity Co-CEO
& Co-Founder

Robyn is a founding partner of YOUmanity and leads the strategic partnerships team. She is committed to delivering tailored organisational and workforce solutions to support her clients in achieving their organisation's purpose and strategic intentions.

With demonstrated success as a business founder and former executive within multi-national and private equity companies across diverse industries, Robyn brings decades of lived strategic and commercial expertise to her clients. Her verifiable success in creating healthy, sustainable businesses, along with her passion for seeing people thrive, sees her committed to supporting YOUmanity's clients in solving their biggest people challenges.

Robyn has developed an extensive network of executives and senior leaders within ASX listed, multi-nationals, not for profits and private corporations across Australia and into APAC. She deeply values her connections building long-standing relationships and has throughout her career delivered numerous senior executive search assignments, with a deep specialisation in Board, C-Suite & Operational Leadership positions.

An experienced board director and AICD member she has a comprehensive understanding of the roles and duties of board directors, including legal environment, strategy and risk, financial performance, decision making, board and organisational culture, board dynamics and measuring board effectiveness. In her personal life, she loves staying fit, getting out and about in nature with her German Shepherd and is a very amateur photographer!
